Each year, the graduating class dedicates their yearbook to someone who has played a significant role in their lives.

Since the theme of our yearbook is Friendship, it is only fitting that we choose a special friend who has aided and guided us through the years.

We, the Class of 1984, would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Henry, one of our favorites among the faculty.

Through the years she has listened to all our complaints, nursed every pain, and helped us through all those crises when we couldn't see clearly.

Her constant smile and perky conversation has brightened each of our days.

We wish simply and sincerely to say thanks, for making our days at Woodward even more memorable.

Lots of health and happiness
Love,
The Class of 1984

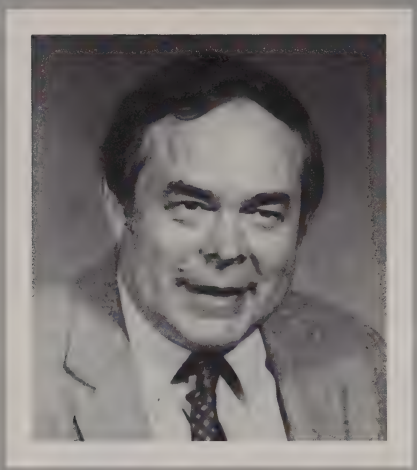
Headmaster's Letter



I know you have been looking forward to graduation for a long time. I also know that as it marks the end of the formative years, it also marks the beginning of a new phase of your life. Exhilaration and dread always accompany the knowledge that you are now fully responsible for your own destiny. This dreadful freedom is the essence of our humanness.

And so the world awaits you offering economic uncertainty, political unrest and cultural change. I guess the only advice we can offer you is to "keep your wits about you." The starting point for any twentieth century woman is to be knowledgeable. Then, and only then, she must deal with how her knowledge may be best employed to make the world more livable. Finally, in the midst of it all she must continually redefine who she is or who she will become.

Best wishes for your life's journey.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Johnston

Golden Treasure

Of all the treasure chests
And of all the treasure isles
The treasure I seek most is the treasure of your smiles.
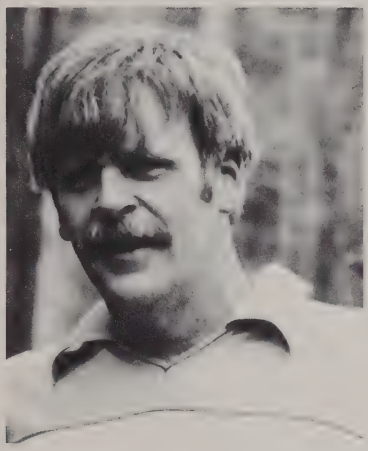
The glitter of your grin makes every
head spin,
And the glow in your eyes makes me
realize,
There is no treasure like you.

Pat Cawley



As I feel the ocean waves
beating slowly in my mind, Harbored in my memory are
the treasured thoughts of you.
These tender thoughts sink deeper into the mainstream of my heart.
They make each fog filled day
a clear,
golden memory of sunshine and
happiness,
Remaining forever in the treasure chest of untarnished gold . . . and memories touched with you.

Pat Cawley

"Sailing
takes me
away to where I want to be . . ."

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think that you dare not, you don't;
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't;
It's almost a cinch that you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost;
For out in this world you'll find,
Success begins with a fellow's will,
It's all in the state of mind.
Think high and your deeds will grow;
Think low and you'll fall behind,
Think that you can and you will,
It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You have to think high to rise,
You have to be sure of yourself,
Before you can win the prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later the man who wins,
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.
O Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Never Alone

Sometimes oh Lord when I cannot pray
I sit very still with nothing to say.
But never-the-less, I know You are there;
I whisper your name 'cause I know You care.
You know I'm troubled with things on my mind,
And You know I've been weak, often unkind,
But Your spirit is with me,
right here in this home;
And I know I am never walking alone.

FRIENDSHIP

The world evolves around friendship
Without friendship you are lost,
Everybody needs someone,
there to talk to,
You have seen my weak side,
the vulnerable part of me,
I can show you,
you won't turn your back
and run.
I've been depressed and down,
You've helped me regain myself
I just wanted to tell you
I'll be there.
if you need a shoulder to cry on,
I'll be there
if you need me, I'll be there You're my friend,
believe me,
I know how hard it can be,
But I'll be your friend
forever,
but I wanted to tell you are
my best friend,
we share secrets,
that will never leave us,
Someday we'll be separated
the friendship will never end,
we will always be friends,
through thick and thin.
Just be happy and keep our friendship going, forever
I will, I promise

Michelle
